AN OBSERVANT VOTER

Makes Some Caustic Comments on Hon. C. M. Brown and His Platform.

Editor Star: The interesting discussions that have been going on in your paper suggest to me the thought that it is very extraordinary that Mr. Brown should be so opposed to capitalists and developers as to wish to deny them any representation or any voice in the government of our state, when he is always active in recommending appropriations of public money for state fairs and exhibitions which have for their object the advertising of the resources and capabilities of Florida and inducing capitalists to come here and invest their money in the development of the state.

Will the denial of the right of supporting a candidate for the senate or any other office to men who have money invested here induce capital to come to our state and show its resources?

I do not understand his argument that phosphate and turpentine operators ruin and impoverish the country by extracting these commodities and then turning back the lands to the state for taxes. How can phosphate and turpentine be of any value if they are not extracted and sold and how does Mr. Brown expect to promote competition for these materials if men with money are to be excluded from the state and denied representation unless that representative is Mr. Brown?

Does it not also follow that the valuation and taxation is immensely higher on the phosphate and turpentine properties after development than before and does not the state and county receive largely increased revenues therefrom, which in turn lightens the taxation of the farmers, or if the money collected is honestly expended gives them largely increased facilities in the shape of roads, schools, public buildings, etc., and at whose expense?

Not at the expense of the farmers of our country but at the expense of the foreigner who consumes these products!

So far as Mr. Brown's statement that there is any combine of phosphate, turpentine, mill, lumber and whisky men and capitalists in favor of Mr. Chambers is concerned, it is the assertion of a child who wants back his marbles and no evidence has been presented to support it, it being like all of Mr. Brown's political speeches. These men form no combinations against the farmer, or they would not support a farmer. No, they would have selected Mr. Brown, the life long schemer, the organizer of phosphate companies, orange companies and any other company out of which easy money is to be got without working for it, as the farmers and truck growers have to work for their scanty profits.

MRS. R. H. WILKINS

Touching Tributes to the Memory of a Noble Woman

Mrs. R. H. Wilkins (nee Miss Wadsworth), was born October 8, 1837. She was married to George C. Shealy on January 22, 1856. Five sons blessed their union. January 17, 1863, she was left a widow. On November 9, 1869, she was married to Brother R. H. Wilkins, of Oglethorpe, Ga. Two daughters were born to them. Mrs. N. B. Plummer, of Anthony, and Mrs. Ed Carmichael, of Ocala. Mrs. Wilkins lived to see all her children married and settled in homes of their own. On the 9th of June, 1902, she rested from her labors. Her membership was transferred from the church militant to the church, triumphant, she having united with the M. E. church, South, early in life. Her life was one of those devoted to service. She never tired of life's burdens and cares. No task was too hard for her when she could lighten the burdens of others. Her place was seldom vacant at church without an excuse that God would accept. Under all circumstances she proved herself to be a consistent follower of her Lord. She said to me one day, "Brother Sistrunk, I want to do all the good I can." To do good was her delight. In this she was like her Lord, who went about doing good. When she went home her husband lost a true, devoted wife and the children will feel the great loss of a tender, loving and patient mother, the community a true, charitable neighbor, the Women's Missionary Society a faithful, valuable member and her pastor a true friend. Our loss is her eternal gain. The course that followed her silent form to the sepulcher proved how highly she was esteemed by the community in which she lived.

The funeral was preached by the pastor at the Methodist church and the remains laid to rest in the Anthony cemetery. A devoted sister is left alone, Mrs. Dr. Smith being the only one of the family left. A dear husband, seven devoted children and a host of friends are left to mourn for her, but not as those who have no hope. To the bereaved friends and dear loved ones our hearts go out in sympathy and may God bless them. T. H. Sistrunk, Pastor.

Anthony, Fla.

On June 9th, 1902, our all-wise and gracious Heavenly Father saw fit in His wisdom to call to Himself our beloved and devoted sister, Mrs. R. H. Wilkins. The Women's Missionary Society, through their secretary, extend to each member of the family their affectionate regard and profound sympathy in the loss which they have so lately sustained in the death of our dear sister. She was a valued member of this society for many years. She will be missed in her home and we shall miss her in our meetings, for she was always ready and willing to respond to the full measure of her ability wherever she thought duty called. Of her it can be truly said that she was faithful to the end and did her duty on every occasion with a smiling face and a Christian heart. Her vacant place in church will be a constant reminder of the loss of a consistent and valued member, but our loss is her gain. She has finished her work on earth and the Heavenly Father has taken the precious soul to Heaven. Sarah Young, Secretary Anthony Women's Missionary Society.
